Project

Field(s)

Solidarity in time of crisis; Fostering and mobility of citizens in Europe

Description

The project intends to establish a permanent Networks of Towns, between Towns which are twined with at least one of municipalities that compose the CIMRC, with a background of good practices of citizen information and support services in order to promote the fostering and mobility of citizens across the territory.

The idea is how to design a project that promotes an intelligent, sustainable and solidary Europe. We aim to establish a network where the partners can contribute to a continuous exchange of common resolutions for particular needs, highlighting the best practices used locally, transferring them to the entire network.
